

I strongly support this proposal in the interests of fairness to all vanity call applicants.

Applications for a single, given vanity call should be accepted and filed only once.

The current situation essentially creates a vanity call 'auction', and while auctions are appropriate for licensees who stand to gain monetarily, such is clearly not the intent nor desireable in the Amateur Service.